

Instead of airing anti-Kerry documentary "Stolen Honor" in its entirety, the Sinclair Broadcast group will air a one hour 'news' program featuring segments of it on Friday on 40 of the 62 stations Sinclair controls nationwide.

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions have illustrated the dangers to localism caused by media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

We need real News not political propaganda

Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Thank you.
